Summary of public comments received: DLNR Comprehensive Exemption List: May 2015

Person/organization	Date	Exemption no.	Comment	Changes to List?
Syd Singer	04/09/15	1.5; 2.22; 3.1; 4.8; 4.12; 4.15; 4.16; 4.22; 5.13; 5.16; 5.18; 5.19	see next sheet	No
David Frankel	04/09/15	1.48	"How is the subdivision of lots considered the operation, repair or maintenance of existing structures? In fact, subdivision of land not only does not belong in exemption class 1, it should never be considered exempt. Subdivisions of land (1) generally result in increased intensity of land use and (2) can result in reduced public access. supports the proposed exemption list	No
The Nature Conservancy, Mark Fox	05/04/15	-		No
Fritz Klasner	05/07/15	4.8; 4.16; 5.7; 8.2;	see next sheet	No
Jojo Tanimoto	05/05/15	1.5, 1.13, 1.37, 1.42, 1.48, 3.11, 5.20, 5.23, 9.1	See next sheet: mainly identified instances where exemption might fail to get the community input an EA/EIS might	No
Conservation Council of Hawaii, Marjorie Ziegler	05/08/15	1.4, 1.5, 3.1, 3.2, 4.6, 4.8, 4.11, 4.12, 4.13, 4.15, 4.16, 4.22, 5.13, 5.18, 5.19, 5.15, 5.16, 5.17	support proposed exemption list, notes that exemption inapplicable when cumulative impact is significant or if in a particularly sensitive environment, and provides reasons for support of specific items. See next sheet for comments on individual items	Exemption Class 4, #12 add modifier "native" before "wildlife habitat" and clause that exemption shall not apply to "vegetation that is likely to be invasive"; Exemption Class 5, #16: remove clause "may involve hybridization of game birds or mammals"
